THE OPERATORS

Will Start Their Mines, With Old Miners if Possible.

And With Imported Diggers if the Old Men Refuse to Work.

The Mine Owners Issue a Statement Concerning the Failure of the Joint Confer-ence to Effect a Settlement of the Strike-Trades Union Conference.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Aug. 25.—The operators' conference was in secret session for several hours and when the doors were opened their press agent announced that the mines would certainly be started with the old diggers if possible, with imported men if the old men refused to work. A committee was appointed composed of representatives of every firm in the district to map out the mode of procedure for the resumption. This committee will meet Wednezday for this purpose.

The statement concerning the joint conference issued by the operators' press committee Tuesday night follows: The conference committees of the coal operators and the officials of the miners failed to agree and adjourned finally. The miners were represented by their national and district officers. Operator J. B. Zerbe was chosen chairman of the conference, and W. C. Pearce, of the miners, secretary. Mr. Zerbe stated that it was desired to bring about a settlement of the strike. Mr. Ratchford stated that he and his associates were empowered to entertain, discuss and decide upon any propositions the operators might submit. Chairman Zerbe asked that the ques tion of interstate agreement be waived, and this was assented to.

Mr. Ratchford then stated the terms upon which the miners would return to work, saying that they would go to work at once on the 60 cent rate being paid until such time as a board of arbitrators could make an award of what would be a fair wage rate, any excess paid to the miners above the award of the arbitratous to be deducted from the pay of the miners following the award. The operators stated their reasons why this could not be accepted, and in lieu thereof, submitted four propositions for arbitration, one that the men should return to work, leaving to arbitrators what rate shall be paid; one leaving the question of rate open, until after a award has been made; one that the arbitrators decide within 10 or 20 days, the miners remaining idle, and one that the arbitrators have 30 days in which to decide, the miners remain

All these were peremptorily rejected by the miners' representatives, and the conference adjourned.

The operators feel that in submitting these various propositions for a settle-they have exhausted every effort in trying to bring about a settlement with the officials of the miners. The proposition of Mr. Ratchford could not be accepted because it means an advance of 2714 per cent in wage cost and would entail irreparable lo se : upon the producers. The price : t which coal contracts have been taken for this year were enforced by the conditions which ruled the market in open competition from other producing fields. It should be remembered that operators are confronted constantly with two forces—the pressure of buyers to get the lowest price, which is determined by a remorseless competition, and by the miners, who demand of transportation to the markets. In response to the call for a meeting of leaders of the several trades unions of Allegheny county, issued by the district miners officials, a very representative gathering (delegated from about fifty unions) assembled in K. of L. hall through the clouds and gave promise of Tuesday night to take action on the

the highest wage rate at all times. In addition to these two factors is the cost

big strike. President Ratchford and the district officials explained in detail the conduct of the strike and the reasons for what action has been taken. The meeting discussed the subject thoroughly and at midnight adjourned after having heartly endorsed the action of the officials and unanimously adopted resolutions condemning the court and sheriff for protecting armed assassins, issuing injunctions by the court at the will of favored corporations and calling on the workingmen of the county to hold themselves in readiness for a general suspension of all work in mills and factories and workshops if the sheriff's and courts persist in defying the constitutional rights of a free peo-

The Procession Was Led by President Mo-Kinley and Other Distinguished Citi-zens-Crush of Spectators the Great-est Ever Witnessed in Buffalo.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 25 .- When the morning gun on the ramparts of Ft. Porter boomed its salute for the new day the sun was obscured by banks of fleecy clouds at the east, which darkened into blackness at the west. A heavy mist rose from Lake Eric and hovered over camp Jewett and was car-ried back cityward by a fresh breeze from the west. But the sun soon broke a brilliant day.

MAJ. THADDEUS S. CLARKSON. Commander-in-Chief, G. A. R.

Drums beating the reveille brought the commades from their tents. Aides-de-camp, in the gold lace of the nation-al guard of New York, were dashing bout the streets on their rearing horses, looking with anxious care to the divisions to which they had been assigned. Men and women, and even children, began to post themselves fete at which he was assassinated was behind the long wire screens that space along the front of the sidewalks grew less, and soon those who had secured first place against the wires be-gan to feel the pressure of the crowd from behind, which squeezed them and held them prisoners for the hours that the parade would take in passing.

In the corridors of the Iroquois hotel spurs were jingling and sabres clangthe commander-in-chief to report to Col. J. Corey Winans, chief-of-staff.

From east and north there came intervals the rattle of drums and the clear note of the bugle. The posts of the Department of Illinois and some of the department of Wisconwere early on the march. The music and the tramping of the marching feet brought cheering crowds to the little detachments as they passed. and the hum of expectancy grew into a roar of excitement as the time for the moving of the procession grew nearer.

Excursion trains on every one of the many lines leading into Buffalo began to pour thousands of recruits into the already congested thoroughfares, and the railroad stations took on the appearance of human beehives, from which a swarm was flying. The street cars, as they pushed slowly down to the center of the city, by temporary side street routes, were filled to the point of distress.

Excursion boats were screeching their whistles in the harbor in an endeavor to get to dock with their quota of spectators

Along the way to the point of formation the president was cheered to the echo.

At 10:30 o'clock the command to march was given and the procession moved.

Amid the roll of innumerable drums and the blare of the trumpets the Grand Army of the Republic, headed by the president of the United States. took its triumphant way through the cheering humanity. The sidewalks on each side of Main street, as far as the eye could reach, were filled with a solid mass of people. From every window faces beamed out and the the roofs had a population equal, if not greater, than that of the windows.

At North street the last wheel in the triumphal march was made. A few blocks more of great mansions and croppled lawns and the men in the advance columns could see the national colors that marked the reviewing stand

CALIFORNIA BANKER.

On His Way to Europe, Becomes Violently

Insure on Arrival in Chleago. CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—John D. Tollant. the president of the Tollant Banking lo. of San Francisco, is confined in the East Chicago avenue station a raving maniae. Locked in a compartment of the cars of the Overland limited train which arrived at the Northwestern depot at $330 o'clock Wednesday morning the demented banker paced to and fro in the greatest excitement, occasionally throwing himself against the walls of the car and crying out in mental agony until the train slowed up on the depot trucks when he was removed to a waiting patrol wayon and taken to the station.

During his compulsory ride through the North Side streets the bank president was held struggling on the floor of the wagon, the strong arms of the odicers being required to prevent ilm from escaping, Constantly en-lenvoring to tear himself loose from the grasp of the officers, he was carried to a cell in the station house where, exhausted from his efforts, he lay on the floor, numb-ling incoherently about the efforts he magined were being made to advertise him as a notorious criminal.

Saturday evening the California banker left for a vacation in Europe. He was to meet his wife in Paris and the two expected to spend the autumn months in a tour of the continent.

Of the Federal Coal Co. Destroyed by Fire-Probably the Work of Incendiaries. Pirtsauman, Pa., Aug. 25.—The power house of the Federal Coal Co., oper ated by E. W. Powers, at Federal, Pa., on the Pittsburgh, Chartiers and Youghlogheny railroad, was destroyed by fire shortly after midnight. The flames spread rapidly and great difficulty was experienced in saving the

There seems to be no doubt that the fire was the work of incendiaries, as three men were seen running down the railroad a few minutes before the flames were discovered.

Since the strike was started Mr. Powers has made himself unpopular by threatening to import colored men and start his mines.

The Federal mines were operated by machinery. The loss was $5,000.
